Pat Ream Climbs To Leadership In 'Miss Torrance '47' Contest

The Rotary Club this week sprang to the support of their contestant, vivacious, blond Pat Ream, and jumped her to first place with 21,870 votes in the "Miss Torrance of 1947" contest.
Rosalie Fortin, who was in first place last week, is in second place now with 19,986 votes. This lovely, dark-eyed entry has the 20-30 club to back her up in her determination to win this contest.
In third place, close on the heels of Rosalie, is pretty Carlotta Dean with 19,385 votes.
Bettie West, petite Lions Club girl, is lagging this week with 15,825 votes.
With less than two weeks to go, the girls are out to secure the largest vote possible to place them in standing for those wonderful prizes at stake in this contest.

There was a dance at the Recreation hall in Pueblo center last Saturday. It was the celebration of two baptisms. About 200 persons attended and danced until 12:00 p.m. Everything went smooth and orderly.
The bingo game which took place last Wednesday was really lots of fun. Prizes were given away to every winner. These games will take place every Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. at Pueblo center, from now on.
Mrs. Pauline Olvera has been ill in bed for a week. She has a sore eye. Hope you're feeling better by now, Mrs. Olvera.
